Harvest at Barford

Thank you to all those who sent in recipes for our Barford Harvest Recipe Book. I hope you have fun trying our selection out over the half term break. The children have also been busy writing thank you letters with some great questions for the local supermarkets. Don't forget to make a donation to the foodbank when you are doing your shopping if you can.

It has been wonderful to have everyone back at school again. Please do your best to follow covid guidelines over the half term break so that we can welcome you all back to school again safely.
